

JUDGING CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

(Last update: March, 2016)

I. Level A – Certified International Judge (E Dan and higher)

- a. 85% or higher on the written exam
- b. 80% or higher on the performance evaluation
- c. Current Certification as Regional Center
- d. Must have judged or arbitrated at the World Championship
- e. Must have judged at least three regional sanctioned events including one event as center judge
- f. Signed log sheet verifying judging experience since last certification (not required for Sah Dan and higher)

II. Level B – Certified Regional Center Judge

- a. 85% or higher on the written exam
- b. 80% or higher on the performance evaluation
- c. Current Certification as Corner or Regional Center
- d. Must be minimum age of 18 years old
- e. Must have judged at least three regional sanctioned events
- f. Signed log sheet verifying judging experience since last certification (not required for Sah Dan and higher)

III. Level C – Certified Corner Judge

- a. 85% or higher on the written exam
- b. 75% or higher on the performance evaluation
- c. Must attend one training session per year
- d. Must be minimum age of 16 years old
- e. Responsible for keeping own data sheet with events attended